

Langtang Region Trek

Trip Overview

Langtang Valley is the nearest Himalayan trekking destination to the north of Kathmandu it is in a narrow landscape and can be reached within a few hour's drive from Kathmandu and is bordered by Tibet in the main Himalayan range. Because of its borders with Tibet, this area is as wild as Tibetan highland and people of this area are thought to have migrated from Tibet in ancient times. Although there are not big mountains but slightly lower range of snowy peaks and it offers an opportunity to explore villages, small peaks, and glaciers with low elevation. There are many other trekking packages but we the Khumbu Alpine Travel do offer excellent choices of just the Langtang Valley trip for those who are interested in short trips with less crowds from Kathmandu. This valley is also known as Glacier Valley following the river upstream through a forest of rhododendrons and bamboo. Our Journey to Langtang Valley moves forward drive from Kathmandu to Syabru Besi. Varieties of Waterfalls, snow-capped Himalayas, and Rhododendrons make the trip one of the most memorable. Just after the five-day trek from Syabru Besi, will reach reached again in ending point Syabru Besi, and a reserved vehicle take us to Kathmandu.
